"CHIMES OF NORMANDY."

Billed for Tomorrow Night and "Said Pasha" for Friday Night.

The Herald Square Opera Co. has secured for a special engagement of two nights, the Academy of Music, Nov. 9th and 10th. This organization comes almost direct from New York, playing a few of the larger cities before coming here. It is composed of twenty well known and carefully chosen artists.

The cast includes Etta Stetson, Mae Glover, Lou Humiston, Harry Nelson, Harry Carter, Thos. Callahan and Geo. J. Williams. The cast is supported by a strong and well-trained chorus.

The company is under the personal direction of Harry Nelson, late of the Grand Opera Co.

The prices for the engagement are 50 and 75c.

The Annapolis (Md.) Evening Capital has the following to say of the Herald Square Co.:

A large audience greeted the Herald Square Opera Company last night in Assembly Hall, and every one was enthusiastic in their praise of the high musical and dramatic talent displayed. The troupe was really far beyond what was expected, and a delighted audience showed its appreciation by repeated encores. The singing, acting and ballet dancing was of the very highest art, while the costumes were exquisite, and "The Chimes of Normandy" was never produced in a more artistic and pleasing manner or to a more appreciative audience.

The leading ladies, Miss Etta Stetson and Miss Mae Glover, seemed to vie with each other for public applause, and are both sweet singers of wide renown. They were supported by a large and well drilled audience chorus. Harry Carter, Harry Nelson, Thos. Callahan and George Williams seemed as near perfect in their roles as it could be possible.

The "Bohemian Girl" will be presented tonight, and if our people want a really fine treat and desire to encourage high art in this direction, they should turn out en masse and enjoy an entertainment that doesn't happen this way often.

Your money will buy just as much at our store as any other man's.

CAPE DUTCH ARE NEUTRAL.

The Tale of the British about the Sorties from Ladysmith—Lyddite Battery's Work.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

Pietermaritzburg, Saturday, Nov. 4.—Widespread rumors from both Dutch and native sources have been current here since yesterday that during the reconnaissance from Ladysmith to the northward the British engaged the enemy and with a lyddite battery drove the Boers into a valley where the British cavalry charged through them. The enemy's casualties are estimated at 1,000 and the British losses at 100.

The sortie was followed by further success yesterday. Rumors brought from Pietermaritzburg report the Boer killed and wounded. The disclosure of their names occasioned much mourning among their relatives here. It is a fact that Joubert drew in his lines today, and now is only outpost is at Colenso. The town has been looted. The bridges are intact and the railroad is obstructed only at Nuthorpe.

FIRST TRANSPORTS SIGHTED.

Cape Town, Nov. 8.—The first transports bearing the army corps have been sighted. They contain over 21,000 men. They should be landed before the end of the week.

BRIDGE BLOWN UP.

Queenstown, Nov. 8.—It is rumored that the railway bridge between Stormburg Spruit and Stormburg Junction has been blown up.

GOING TO THE FRONT.

Cape Town, Nov. 8 (delayed).—Volunteers of the British army recruited with enthusiasm. The corps goes to the front tonight. Cape Dutch have remained strictly neutral. On the other hand many of the Dutch of Bechuanaland it is believed have joined the Boers.

THE DEMOCRATS LOSE

In Kentucky and Ohio—Maryland Democratic.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

New York, Nov. 8.—Returns from the states this morning indicate 10,000 fusion majority in Nebraska; 25,000 republican majority in Ohio, with the legislature in Kentucky republican Iowa is republican by 65,000, Maryland democratic 15,000; Massachusetts and Pennsylvania republican by 65,000 and 100,000 majorities, respectively.

NASH CARRIES OHIO.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 8.—Jones carried Cuyahoga county by nearly 15,000. Nash carries the state by 55,000.

KENTUCKY LOST.

Louisville, Nov. 8.—Only three counties to be heard from. The vote stands: Taylor, 121,033; Goebel, 112,206; Brown, 7,301. The republicans carried everything, except Louisville. They claim the legislature by seven majority. This gives them the U. S. senator. In almost every county the republicans made big gains. In some instances former democratic counties with good majorities went republican. The Brown vote but little figure.

Omaha, Neb., 8.—Fusionists carry the state by 16,000. Neville is elected to congress.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 8.—In the same ratio as the returns already in, other counties will show a plurality of 60,000 for the republicans.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 8.—Returns indicate republican gains throughout the state.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 8.—The republicans retain control of the legislature.

Boston, Nov. 8.—Crane's plurality in the state is about 60,000.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 8.—Smith's plurality is now stated 10,000.

Pierre, S. D., Nov. 8.—Republican plurality 8,000.

A TERRIBLE SHAKE UP.

The Jump of an Express Train Near New York.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

New York, Nov. 8.—Two locomotives attached to the Buffalo express on the D. L. & W. Railroad, leaped from the track at Lake Hopatcong last night. Two express cars and a baggage car after them, turning around with two hundred passengers. None were badly hurt.

"Flowers that Bloom in the Fall."

Preparations for the chrysanthemum show are now nearing completion, and by the opening hour tomorrow morning everything will be in absolute readiness for this annual festivity.

A great many flowers have been already entered and are fully up to the standard as to beauty, though the ladies had feared that the previous storms might cause them to be probably somewhat inferior in size and beauty. But all apprehensions in this direction have been dispelled, for the flowers are all that one could wish.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Nov. 8.

W. C. Jones, Esq., spent yesterday in the Gate City.

S. W. Laughlin represented Ashboro here yesterday.

A "scrapping case" was tried before the mayor last night.

W. R. Richardson, civil engineer, came up from Greensboro last evening.

Presiding Elder Wood stopped off here last night with Rev. J. R. Scroggs.

An operator from Greensboro is assisting Mr. Mitchell, day operator at the depot.

Capt. T. J. Redding and wife, of Carraway, were here yesterday.

J. C. Mayfield was a representative of the Quaker City here last evening.

The High Point postoffice is receiving weather maps from the weather bureau at Raleigh. Quite a convenience.

Died yesterday evening at 6 o'clock the 1-month-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Grimes. Interment in High Point cemetery this evening at two o'clock.

The High Point chrysanthemum show, which is being held at the McDaniel-Gordy building, Main street, is a decided success. We doubt if a finer, prettier and larger collection of this beautiful species of flowers has ever been on exhibition in Guilford county. Entering the building where the show is being held you find yourself among a regular flower garden of rarest beauty, and the time from your entrance to your departure is spent in a pleasant and profitable way. A good many viewed the exhibits yesterday and a larger crowd will be in attendance today. (Owing to the late arrival of the train today the list of prizes and prize-winners is omitted.—Telegram.)

MORGAN'S VIEWS ON COLONIES.

Alabama Senator Favors Permanent Retention of the Philippines.

New York, Nov. 7.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: "Congress should at once take action in relation to the Philippines," said Senator Morgan tonight. "The action should be taken in the discharge of the duty imposed by section 4, article 4, of the constitution, which provides that the United States shall guarantee to every State in this union a republican form of government."

The senator said that this imposed a distinct duty upon congress and the discharge of that duty by action looking to the establishment of a republican form of government in the Philippines would be the best answer possible to the anti-imperialists. He explained that what he meant by giving a republican form of government to the Philippines was that the best form of a republic known in the world, which would be the best form to be found among the islands, and that a very long step toward establishing the government in the Philippines should soon approach to this high ideal.

Senator Morgan favors a congressional commission to visit the Philippines to study the conditions there before attempting to frame a system of government.

In the senator's opinion the United States should have charge of the external relations of the islands, and of all matters relating to the islands as a group, while the local affairs should be confided as far as possible to the people of the different localities. In this connection he spoke of the township system of the New England states as the highest ideal of local self-government.

The question of who should have the right to vote would have to be determined by congress, and in this connection the senator called attention to the fact that in the first instance the determination of who shall have the franchise in the states and territories organized under the United States is an arbitrary act, in some places men only being allowed to vote, in others men and women, and in others various qualifications being prescribed. Existing laws should be continued in force as far as they were good laws, because the people understood them. One change that would have to be made would be to take away from the friars and the religious orders their power of levying taxes on the people.

Senator Morgan is of the opinion that while the United States should undertake at once the solution of the problem of governing the Philippines, the development of that government into its ultimate form will have to be a matter of growth.

BETTING AT WASHINGTON

On the Elections Not so Heavy as Usual.

MCKINLEY RETURNS TO THE CITY

From Canton Where He Voted—Returns Received at the White House.

Special to THE TELEGRAM

Washington, Nov. 8.—Voters who left here for their homes are returning rapidly. The largest number of clerks in the department who went home were voters in the state of Maryland. The work of sending men home was not alone confined to the republicans. In fact the democrats did as much of this work as the republicans.

James L. Noris, of this city, one of the prominent democratic workers of the District of Columbia, and who is a well known figure at democratic national conventions did much work in this line. He personally paid the fare of a large number of democratic voters to points in Maryland. Although it cost Mr. Noris a large sum of money, he stated that it was his contribution to the campaign fund of the state. All of the clerks who went home, republicans as well as democrats, were confident of the result, and were enthusiastic over prospects.

The betting on the elections this year in Washington is less than it has been for many years past. Very few bets were made excepting for cigars, hats, freak perfumances, etc. Very little money was wagered on the results in any state, the prevailing opinion being that the contests were too close to risk much money thereon. About the largest bet that was made before the elections in Washington was one of three thousand dollars even on Maryland and Ohio. In the latter state what betting there was done was mostly even money, while in Kentucky, the democrats demanded slight odds. Most of the voters who went to Maryland returned home immediately after the election. Many voted in Baltimore, and got back home before eight o'clock. Those who went to the more distant points will not get back before Wednesday or Thursday.

President McKinley returned home from Canton this morning. The president received returns of the election on the train. At the white house returns were also received by the members of the white house staff, being received over special wires from many points.

Returns of the elections were received last night at all of the city newspapers, and were displayed on canvases as fast as received. The interest in the elections was almost as great as during a presidential election, on account of the important bearing they will have upon the next democratic and republican national convention.

The general impression in Washington early last night was that indications pointed to a democratic landslide in many sections. It is said by prominent republicans that should the administration be defeated (for that was the real issue of many of the campaigns), it will make no difference with the policy outlined by the president.

United States Marshal Melton, of South Carolina, who has been here for several days has returned home. He left home for Charleston Monday night.

Representative Adamson, of Georgia, was in Washington for a short while Monday. He left at night for his home, having come here merely on some matters of local importance in which his state is interested.

Adamson stated the other day that there is nothing exciting of a political nature in Georgia. He says that Georgia will send a solid delegation to the next convention pledged to Bryan and silver.

Mr. Adamson says that the Georgia delegation in the coming congress have not expressed any choice for a minority leader, and will not do so until the assembling of congress, when they will have an opportunity for a careful survey of the entire field before coming to their decision.

Ex-Representative E. E. Meredith, of Virginia, who has been quite sick for some time, it is said, is slightly improved.

The banquet which was to have been given on the fourth of December next to the Virginia delegation in congress, has been postponed until the following week.

A Home Site Given Away.

It is our purpose to have the largest sale of lots ever held in Greensboro on November 13th, at 2:30 p. m., on Vanhooklin Sub-Division. One of the finest lots on Battle Ground Avenue will be given to the party who makes the largest purchase at this sale. This lot has a sign on it giving the particulars. Go out and see it before the sale.

We want, if possible, to sell 100 lots in two hours.

Our usual terms of 1-3 cash and balance in 6 and 12 months, with interest at 6 per cent on deferred payments, will prevail. A discount of 5 per cent will be allowed to all who wish to pay cash and take deed.

This will be our last auction sale of this property until next spring. Be on hand promptly at 2:30 p. m., Nov. 13th, and buy a home site at your own price.

Remember that not a by-bid will be allowed.

MR. HOBART'S CONDITION.

Other Vice-Presidents Who Have Died While in Office.

The critical illness of Vice-President Hobart will be received with sincere sorrow throughout the country, for he has shown himself to be a man of generous and amiable qualities; and senators on both sides of the house and from all sections of the country unite in paying tribute to his impartiality and fairness. It is no longer a secret that he has been hopelessly ill for a year, and it speaks well for the press of the country that the fatal tendency of his illness was never referred to. This was done out of deference to the patient, whose condition was not known to himself. We are told his illness was known in the offices of several leading journals months ago, but no reference was made to it for the kind of reasons.

Mr. Hobart was practically unknown to the nation at large at the time of his nomination. He had been prominent in New Jersey politics, but had taken no part in national affairs. Neither was a power in national politics, or what is known as a "wheel horse," as Adlai Stevenson, his predecessor, was a unique feature of his career was his intimacy and cordial intimacy with the president. Scarcely, indeed, has this occurred before in the history of the government.

Jefferson, who was vice-president under Adams, was his bitter enemy, as he was of his own vice-president Aaron Burr. Calhoun was vice-president under Jackson, and their relationship, although not absolutely hostile while they occupied the respective offices of president and vice-president, was one of bitter enmity during Jackson's second term. The well-known, though not authenticated, story is that Jackson on his deathbed said his one regret was he had not hanged John C. Calhoun. But the relationship between Jackson and his enemy, Van Buren, "Matty," who was vice-president during his second term, was one of cordiality.

John Tyler, of Virginia, who succeeded to office after the death of William Henry Harrison, antagonized his party at almost every point. The feeling of the republican party toward Andrew Johnson is fresh in the minds of many people. Vice-President Arthur belonged to the Conkling wing of the party, and was not entirely friendly with Garfield. The list might be extended. Stevenson and Cleveland, we should add, were not chums.

The vice-presidents who have died while in office are: George Clinton, vice-president under Jefferson and Madison, died in 1812; William R. King, elected on the democratic ticket with Franklin Pierce in 1853, took the oath in Cuba, where he had gone in search of health, and where he died in 1855 before ever assuming the duties of his office; Henry Wilson, elected with Grant in 1872, died in 1875, and Thos. A. Hendricks, of Indiana, elected with Cleveland in 1884, died in 1885.

If Mr. Hobart should die the senate would choose a presiding officer when it meets. Senator Frye, of Maine, is now president pro tem, and would probably be his own successor. In the event of the death of the president, the vice-president being dead, the speaker of the house succeeds to the presidency.—Nashville American.

Some Home Endorsements.

Mr. J. E. Gray, of 916 Walker ave., says:

"I have seen Russel H. Conwell in 'Acres of Diamonds' and consider it one of the finest lectures I ever listened to."

Mr. Clarence R. Brown, who heard Mr. Conwell lecture several times at Chataqua some years since, says that his popularity at that assembly was marvelous. Though many noted orators were there at the same time, none spoke with so much success as did he, and people followed him about from place to place in their enthusiasm, hoping to hear him speak or to have an opportunity of meeting him.

Miss Mary Petty, who has heard Mr. Conwell in his own church, speaks of his magnetic manner, simple, though strong and forceful delivery and great popularity.

Mr. Clarence R. Brown frequently attended Mr. Conwell's church during his residence in Philadelphia, and says the power of the man to hold the hearers seems almost mesmerizing. While he could not be called sentimental, he always speaks upon questions of vital interest and with such force and earnestness as to impress his hearers with the depth of his convictions.

Marshall Musical Comedy Co.

Harry B. Marshall, the proprietor and manager of the Marshall Musical Comedy Co., is in the city arranging to bring his company here next week.

Mr. Marshall has met quite a number of friends among our home people, and he assures them that his company is one of the best of its kind.

Mr. Marshall is a writer with a reputation, and the fact that he musical comedies put on by him are of his own production, is a guarantee to those who know him that the entertainment will be of the first class order. The company will play here three nights. Popular prices will be the order of the day.

The "Kowick" viol kid and box call leather-lined shoes for men sold by Thacker and Brockmann are admitted by all who have seen them to be the best all round shoe for the price on the market. They are not only handsome, dainty, good fitting shoes, but they have the soft wearing qualities needed in winter and rough weather. The price is three dollars and they come in all sizes from 5 to 11.

A UNITED STATES PROBLEM.

It is most gratifying to the southern people that the north is awaking to the gravity of the problem that the south has been and is confronted with, and that they are realizing that it is a question which does not concern the south alone, but the whole union. The following is taken from the New York Evening Post:

"The race problem, or southern question as it is often called, is presented to us again in Mr. Booker Washington's annual report of the Tuskegee Institute, which has just come to hand. Before examining it we are moved to ask why this should be called the southern question. The social status of the negro is not better in the north than it is in the south. The negro has no better opportunity to earn his living here than there. He is not better liked here than there. Probably a negro postmaster would not be shot here if there were one, but if the conditions in the north were the same as in the south, we should not like to give bonds for the safety of negro office-holders any more than for the safety of negro coal miners in Illinois. In short, the difference between the two sections which justifies us in calling the race problem the southern question is physical, not moral. There are more negroes in the south than in the north. The two races are brought into closer contact with each other there than here, and as time goes on and population increases, we apprehend crowding and friction with consequences more disastrous than those which attend the growth of a homogeneous race. Whether we call it the southern question or the race problem, we of the north cannot escape our share of the consequences. It is a United States problem, and it is large enough to engage all of our spare time and all of our spare money."

The calm that appears to have settled in the Transvaal is ominous. Buller with his vast army and his dead conscience is moving to the fray.

TEXTILE DEVELOPMENT.

Textile development has made rapid advancement in North Carolina during the past twelve months. The Raleigh Morning Post discovers that since November 1, 1916 a total of twenty-seven mills have been incorporated under the laws of the state, which we give below, as follows:

The Daisy Hosiery Mills of Alamance.
The Levi Cotton Mills, of Rutherford.
Weldon Cotton Manufacturing Company of Halifax.
Revolution Cotton Mills of Guilford.
Tolar, Hart and Holt Mills of Cumberland.
Bola Cotton Mills, of Cabarrus.
Fountain Cotton Mills of Edgecombe.
Robbins Manufacturing Company of Wayne.
Glencoe Mills of Alamance.
Delgada Mills of New Hanover.
The Daniel Manufacturing Company of Lincoln.
Patterson Textile Company of Halifax.
Shelby Cotton Mills of Cleveland.
Sanford Cotton Mills of Moore.
Avalon Mills of Rockingham.
Sealand Cotton Mills of Richmond.
Indian Creek Manufacturing Company of Lincoln.
Carolina Cotton Mills of Alamance.
Lula Manufacturing Company of Gaston.
Tuscarora Cotton Mills of Cabarrus.
Windemere Knitting Mills, of Stanly.
Neuse River Mills of Wake.
Catawba Cotton Mill of Catawba.
Royall Cotton Mills of Wake Forest.
The American Warehouse Company of Rockingham.

The Raleigh Post says: Congressman Lacey said in his Statesville speech recently that upon taking up the election law to study it he began to pray, but by the time he had finished the reading he was cursing like—well, like the judge can do when he throws his soul into it.

We have been expecting to hear of a conflagration in Alexander even since Mr. Settle's letter reached him. That blow must have killed father.

SUCCESSFUL SUBMARINE BOA

At last it seems that a successful submarine boat has been invented. The difficulties attendant upon these craft, are about as insurmountable as those connected with airships. The only thing that has been found objectionable about the airships that have been created to this time, is that they won't fly. Nor will the submarine vessels swim beneath the water's surface as they were intended to do.

But at New Suffolk, L. I., Mond afternoon, the final government tests of the submarine torpedo boat Holland took place under government expert direction. The boat dove at the starting point and sped along at a depth of five feet submerged for half a mile, when she changed the depth to nine feet and, having completed the mile, came to the surface and fired her dummy torpedo. She then quietly disappeared and turning completely around, made the run back to the starting point under water, where she again rose to the surface.

The boat was demonstrated to be a success. And American inventors scores another point on the map of Europe. The Holland is a dangerous customer.

THE ELECTION YESTERDAY.

Vote in Ohio Close, but Republicans Probably Won.

FUSIONISTS WIN IN NEBRASKA.

Kentucky Doubtful—Maryland Conceded to the Democrats—Returns Not Yet All In.

Elections were held yesterday in twelve states as follows:
Virginia—Legislature, full house and half Senate.
Maryland—State officers.
Massachusetts—State officers.
Pennsylvania—Supreme court judge, superior court judge and treasurer.
New York—Legislature.
New Jersey—Legislature.
Ohio—State officers.
Iowa—State officers.
Kentucky—State officers.
Mississippi—State officers.
Nebraska—Supreme court judge and university regent.
South Dakota—Supreme court judge.

The Telegram prepares the following result of the balloting from the dispatches in the morning papers, which our telegraphic returns this afternoon may materially alter:
Virginia—Strongly democratic; vote light. The legislature elected will choose a successor to United States Senator Thomas S. Martin, who is a candidate to succeed himself, and is opposed by Governor J. Hoge Tyler.

Maryland—Conceded by the republicans to have gone Democratic by 10,000 majority. The democratic ticket was: Governor, John Walter Smith; comptroller, Dr. J. W. Hering; attorney general, Isidor Raynor; for Baltimore city's representative of state court of appeals, Massachusetts—Strongly republican with slight democratic gain. The republican ticket is: Governor, W. Murray Crane; lieutenant governor, John L. Bates; secretary of commonwealth, William M. Olin; treasurer and receiver general, Edward S. Bradford; auditor of accounts, John N. Kimball; attorney general, Hiram M. Knowlton.

Pennsylvania—Strongly republican. Following is the ticket elected: Supreme court, J. Hay Brown, rep; and J. L. L. Mestrezat, dem; superior court, Josiah R. Adams; state treasurer, James E. Barnett.
New York—A slight loss to the democrats in the number of assemblies.
New Jersey—The legislature republican by the usual majority.

Ohio—The vote close. Nash, rep, getting the best of it in the cities and McLean, dem, in the rural districts. Jones', ind, vote was made up principally of republicans who otherwise would have supported Nash. Most of the Jones supporters failed to vote for any candidate for other offices, hence the balance of the republican ticket is fairly elected. The republican ticket is as follows: Governor, George K. Nash; lieutenant governor, John A. Caldwell; judge supreme court, William Z. Davis; attorney general, John M. Sheets; treasurer, Isaac B. Cameron; auditor, Walter D. Gulbert; member board of public works, Frank A. Huffman.

Iowa—Light vote cast, showing fall-off in both parties as compared with 1917. Republican ticket elected as follows: Governor, Leslie M. Shaw; lieutenant governor, James C. Milliman; judge supreme court, John C. Sherwin; superintendent public instruction, Robert C. Barrett; railroad commissioner, Edwin A. Dawson.
Kentucky—In this state, as in Ohio, the vote is very close and it is at this hour impossible to say certainly who is elected, though the odds seem to be in favor of the republican ticket here as in Ohio. The election in this state was a very exciting one. The militia was at the polls and several men were killed during the day. The democratic ticket in this state was as follows: Governor, William S. Taylor; lieutenant governor, John Marshall; secretary of state, Caleb Powers; attorney general, Clifton J. Pratt; treasurer, Walter R. Day; auditor, John S. Sweeney; commissioner of agriculture, John W. Throckmorton; superintendent of public instruction, John Burke.

Mississippi—Democratic by not less than 30,000. The ticket elected was: Governor, A. H. Longino; lieutenant governor, James T. Harrison; secretary of state, J. L. Power; treasurer, R. J. Stowers; auditor, W. Q. Cole; attorney general, Monroe McClurg; superintendent of public instruction, H. L. Whitfield; revenue agent, Wirt Adams; land commissioner, E. H. Hall; clerk superior court, E. W. Brown; railroad commissioner, A. Q. May; J. D. McInnis, J. C. Kincannon.

Nebraska—Here again the vote is very close with the chances in favor of the fusion (democratic and silvermen) ticket. Holcomb claims 12,000 majority. The fusion ticket is: Judge supreme court, Silas A. Holcomb; pop; regent state university, J. L. Teeters, silver rep; Edson Rich, dem.

South Dakota—Republican ticket elected as follows: Justice supreme court, Dighton Corson, Howard G. Fuller, Dick Henry.

Kadok—The best headache cure and fever reducer. 10c—3 doses.

HARRIS LITHIA WATER

Is the Strongest Natural Lithia Spring Water On The Market

And has the endorsement of the most noted physicians from all parts of the country as to its superiority over all other waters. Read what some of them have to say for Harris Lithia Water.

Asheville, N. C.
An extended clinical use of the Harris Lithia Water prompts me to the statement that I regard it as one of the best, if not the best, Lithia Water known to the profession. In the condition of Phosphatic Urine, its action is marvelous. Its use in the Rheumatic and Gouty diseases afford me more comfort than either the Buffalo or Londonberry waters.
Very truly yours,
John Hey Williams, M. D.

After a long and varied experience in the use of mineral waters from various sources, both foreign and domestic, I am fully persuaded that the Harris Lithia Water possesses efficacy in the treatment of affections of the Kidney and the Bladder unequalled by any other water of which I have made trial. This opinion is based upon observation of its effects upon my patients for the past three years, during which time I have prescribed it freely and almost uniformly with benefit in the medical maladies above mentioned.
A. N. Talley, M. D.
Columbia, S. C.

Mr. J. T. Harris, Proprietor Harris Lithia Springs.
Dear Sir: While it is contrary to my custom to give testimonials to remedial agencies, I feel free to attest to the efficacy of the Harris Lithia water (when used in large quantities) in the rheumatic and gouty diatheses; in engorgement of the kidneys; in inflammation of the bladder, and in all cases where there is an excess of solids in the urine.
Yours respectfully,
Geo. Howe, M. D.

The waters of the Lithia Springs are odorless, free from color, with a pleasant saline taste, rather palatable. When taken in considerable quantity, they do not nauseate, purge, or produce any feeling of discomfort. I find from the analysis of the waters, they contain Chloride Sodium, Carb. Potash, Carb. Soda, Carb. Lithia, Carb. Iron and Sulphate Magnesia. These waters act directly upon the mucous coating of the stomach and alimentary canal, they are powerfully alterative and tonic. They are everything to inflamed or irritated surfaces. They act upon the blood, changing it from acid to alkaline. In indigestion, catarrh of stomach and gastralgia, supplemented with a proper diet, they are a certain cure. The action upon the kidneys is marked. The sodium, potash, soda, lithia, are the best solvents of uric acid, all calculi of an acid character, whether lithic or cystic, are steadily dissolved. I am confident that the profession will find it very useful in cases where this class of water is required.

Read what the noted Dr. Thomas S. Powell has to say for Harris Lithia Water:
Mr. J. T. Harris:
Dear Sir—I have found the use of the water from your Lithia Spring in South Carolina so efficacious in the case of a young lady patient of mine who has suffered for years with diabetes, with all its attendant dangers, that I want to add my testimonial to the many you already have. The patient I refer to has used the water freely at home for scarcely a month now, with more beneficial results than from months spent at the different noted lithia springs in different parts of the United States, besides long continued use of the same waters at home. Other of my patients and friends are now using the same with best results. I cordially recommend it to all suffering from similar diseases.

Very respectfully yours,
Thomas S. Powell, M. D.
Pres. Southern Medical College, Atlanta, Ga.

Read what Prof. Joseph Jones, of Tulane University of New Orleans, has to say in regard to the virtues of Harris Lithia Water.
New Orleans, La.
Gentlemen—I have used with great benefit, the Harris Lithia water, and regard it with favor, the water being highly charged with lithia.
Respectfully,
Jos. Jones, M. D.
Newberry, S. C.

I have prescribed Harris Lithia water in my practice, and am delighted with it in those cases in which it is indicated.

In all those conditions in which there is uric acid in the system, in gouty and rheumatic diathesis, in cystitis and endocervicitis, causing painful micturition, in renal dropsy and dyspepsia, due to torpid liver or constipation, I have found the best results from this mineral water. Indeed, it may be used to advantage in any case in which its formula may suggest itself, especially when lithia is indicated. I recommend it to the public and believe there is no superior lithia water in this country.
Camden, S. C.

Mr. J. T. Harris:
Dear Sir—I enclose you in this letter several pieces of calculi passed by a patient of mine who has been taking the Harris Springs water for the past eighteen months. This gentleman has been a sufferer for two or three years with cystitis, caused from stone. The solvent power of the water has been, I think, clearly demonstrated in this case. All these fragments were passed in two evacuations from his bladder in the past ten days. I consider Harris Spring water a most excellent remedy in the uric acid diathesis, also in chronic dyspeptic troubles.

I am, yours respectfully,
A. W. Burnett, M. D.

Chester, S. C.
Dear Sir—For the past 8 months I have been using Harris Lithia water with the most excellent results, where I have been able to get my patients to drink a sufficient quantity daily. The carbonated has no equal in gastric disturbances. It is an excellent table water. It is a pleasant laxative, and a sure cure for flatulent dyspepsia.
S. M. Caveg, M. D.

Baltimore, Md.
J. T. Harris, Esq., Harris Spring, S. C.:
Dear Sir—I have been using Harris Lithia water for some time, and I tell you that it is my opinion that the Harris Lithia water is by far the best lithia water that I have ever used, and that it has done me a great deal of good, and I think that it is a most valuable remedy.
R. C. Hoffman,
Pres. S. A. L. R. R.

Daybreak.

A wind came off of the sea, And said: "O mist, make room for me!"

It hailed the ships, and cried: "Sail on, Ye mariners, the night is gone!" And hurried landward far away, Crying, "Awake! It is the day!" It said unto the forest: "Shout! Hang all your leafy banners out!" It touched the wood-bird's folded wing, And said: "O bird, awake and sing!" And o'er the farms: "O chancelier! Your clarion blow; the day is near!" It whispered to the fields of corn: "Bow down, and hail the coming morn!" It shouted through the belfry tower: "Awake, O bell! proclaim the hour!" It crossed the churchyard with a sigh, And said: "Not yet! In quiet lie." —Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Fired at Him in the Court Room.

Prattburg, Ga., Nov. 6.—During the trial of a case in a justice's court here in which Luke Crawford, of Thomaston, was plaintiff, a negro witness gave testimony which enraged Crawford, who drew a pistol and fired a shot at him. Bailiff Carlisle grabbed Crawford in time to divert the shot and no damage was done. There was intense excitement in the court room, which was crowded. The bailiff succeeded in over-powering and disarming the enraged man after a desperate scuffle in which he was considerably bruised.

Football at Oxford.

Oxford, N. C., Nov. 7.—Horne defeated Carolina's second team in a beautiful game of ball today. The score was 11 to 6. Kenna kicked goal from the field on Carolina's thirty-yard line. Features of the game: For Carolina—Carr, Craig and Oldham; for Horne—Shirley, Deavin, Kenna, Latham and Turndine.

Ulorious News.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist. Guaranteed.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chili Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

REV. S. A. DONAHOE

Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

On the 10th of December, 1897 Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Point Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold, which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

A Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Bines, of Manchester, Iowa, writing of his almost miraculous escape from death says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation, and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Stagnant size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Neil—"She's been married three times." Belle—"Yes; her dressmaker told me she was fond of being well groomed."

Many Thanks.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Tex. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.
